Dear Ms. Small---

In what might be considered "cruel and unual punishment"
I have ~~been~~, during the last two years, been forced to watch considerable American T.V.

As the torrents of violence, vulgarity, and greed flow ~~by~~ by, one looks in vain for an occasional moment of fragile freshness.

I would like to thank you for your extremely skillful signals. I cannot pretend to know what you are like
"off camera"--but are consistently the most attractive and effective actress on television.

I have wondered if you have been offered movie roles?
These days we need all the intelligent-beauty available for broadcast.

Jim Dunbar comes through cleanly two.
